1. Introduction

In December 2018, the procedure for submitting an electronic application for a craft licence was revamped on the SPOT Slovenian Business Point portal for prospective craftspeople. As part of the redesign of the procedure, a set of procedures linked to the craft licence was finalised, such as:

- · change of data in the Craft Register,
- · removal of a craftsperson from the Craft Register,
- issue of EU certificate for craftspeople,
- obtaining a duplicate craft licence.

Legal framework:

- Small Business Act (ObrZ) (Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia, Nos. 40/04 official consolidated text, 117/06 ZDavP-2, 102/07, 30/13 and 36/13 corr.)
- Rules on the procedure for issuing craft licence and on the Craft Register and
- Decree on craft activities

In accordance with the Small Business Act, the craft licence terminates:

- by deregistration from the Craft Register or
- · upon withdrawal.

The natural or legal person is required to deregister from the Craft Register within eight days of cessation of the business. The Chamber of Craft and Small Business of Slovenia issues a decision on deregistration from the Craft Register.
